

This proposal simply corrects outdated addresses, websites, and contact information throughout Chapter V of 12 NYCRR. This proposal also fixes minor grammatical or typographical mistakes and fixes gendered terms to be gender neutral. No person is likely to object to the rules as written as they simply provide updated contact information and fix typographical errors.