

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the proposal will not have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The proposal simply corrects technical mistakes and provides updated information.